Consistently Serving the Great North Tah oe-Truckee Recreational Area Since 1869

97th YEAR — NO. 23 | Truckee, Nevada County, California | Thursday, May 12, 1966 | 10c Per Copy—$3 Per Year | Since 1869

Proposal To Add More Area On School District

The Tahoe Truckee Unified School District may be increased by 16 sections of land, if a proposal of the Nevada City school district is accepted by the various jurisdictions concerned.

The tract is located near the junction of State Route 20 with Interstate 80, extending up to Kingvale, where it adjoins the present boundary of the east-end district. This would minimize the busing and housing problems of the county seat district in servicing the area.

The issue arose over transportation difficulty during heavy winter snow periods. Most school officials taking part in discussions agreed the children involved can be better served by the Tahoe Truckee district.

Before the change can be made, details must be approved by all boards involved and taken to the Nevada County school district organization committee. Beside the Nevada City district, these include the board of supervisors, the Tahoe Truckee school board and the Nevada Union high school board.

Final services were held on Monday, May 9, at the Lombard Chapel in Sacramento for Lorrin W. Ferdinand, Sr., father of Lorrin W. "Skip" Ferdinand, Jr., of Truckee. Pastor Bob R. Duffer of Truckee officiated. Graveside military rites were held under the auspices of the V. F. W. Post of Sacramento at East Lawn Cemetery.

Ferdinand expired on May 4 at the Veterans Hospital in Livermore. He was born December 27, 1894, in Cambridge, Massachusetts, and resided there until 1939 when the family moved to the state of Washington. After coming to California in 1945, he resided in Sacramento from 1950 until the time of his death. Ferdinand was employed at McClelland AFB until he retired.

Ferdinand was in the U. S. Marine Corp during World War I and in the Coast Guard Auxiliary during World War II. He was very active in Veterans' of Foreign War activities in Sacramento.

In addition to his son, he leaves two daughters, Norma Harris of Auburn and Jacquelyn Streeter of Cloverdale, Oregon. He is also survived by six grandchildren.

Absentee Ballots Are Now Available

NEVADA CITY — The spring "citizenship season" is rapidly reaching its climax, the primary election. County Clerk Theo A. Kohler, Jr., reminds registered voters of Nevada County that absent voters' ballot applications are now being processed.

Residents who will not be—or may not be—in their home precincts on June 7, election day, may vote at the county clerk's office in Nevada City any working day from May 9 to May 31. They may, as an alternative, request an absentee ballot prior to May 31 and return it by June 6 through the mail.

Election notices appearing elsewhere in this issue of the Sierra Sun list candidates for state, county and district office, with their addresses, and list the various precinct polling places in the 5th supervisorial district, together with the officials designated to conduct the balloting on June 7.

Voters in the eastern end of the county may obtain necessary forms for casting absentee ballots from Fred Hodder, liaison officer, in the County Government Center on Emigrant Way, Gateway.

Plans Move Ahead For Annual Flyin At Local Air Field

Plans are progressing for staging the third annual flyin to be held June 18 and 19, Michael Ellis, director of promotion and advertising, announced.

Preceeding the flyin will be a helicopter fishing trip into the back country, under the direction of Jack Ellis, and will be featured for two days prior to the opening day of the flyin.

Local people are especially urged to bring their families and enjoy the two days program at the Truckee Tahoe airport.

"We plan on this flyin to be the biggest and greatest success of all," Mrs. Ellis said.

Saturday evening will be featured by a get-acquainted cocktail hour, followed by a prime rib dinner. Sunday morning there will be a spectacular air show, plus a performance of radio-controlled airplanes. It is hoped to arrange a square dancing group to demonstrate the latest steps.

The afternoon will be devoted to a delicious western barbecue provided by the Truckee Tahoe Hi-Flyers.

Among events scheduled will be parachute jumps, one-cent a pound airplpane rides, soaring flights and demonstrations and other interesting and entertaining features on Sunday.

Roy Waters Joins Board of Utility

Sergeant Roy F. Waters, who heads the Truckee squad of sheriff's deputies, has been selected by the governing board of the Truckee Public Utility District to replace Charles Fink, who has left the area. The selection was made only after a number of potential candidates for the position were screened by the board. Waters will assume his new duties immediately.

Fink, with his family, departed Truckee after many years of employment as pharmacist at Loynd's Truckee Drug and is now associated in a drug store at Auburn. They will be missed by their many local friends. Fink was active in many community and regional affairs beside the utility district. He was an ardent skier and participated in club affairs as well as being a coach and official. He was also active in local aviation programs and a member of the local group of the CAP.

Teale Tours Area. Sees Sewage Needs

State Senator Stephen Teale spent approximately three hours touring the Truckee-Donner area last Sunday.

The purpose of his visit was to assess the need for state financial assistance to the Truckee Sanitary District in its construction program. Fred Hodder, district director, escorted the senator through the various subdivisions as he described the local improvement plan. Senator Teale viewed the geography of the whole sanitary district and indicated that the best solution was to export sewage completely out of the Donner basin.

Whether or not the state can assist financially in the district's problem depends largely on whether it became a part of Plan B, the North Tahoe regional sewage plan, the senator declared. Senator Teale is a candidate for reelection and if chosen at the polls will represent this area in the state senate.

J. A. Bennett stated that those having additional trash and junk to dispose of will have free use of the local dump during the week set aside for the cleanup.

Assessor Speaks

"Nevada County represents $250 million in diversified taxable property covering everything capable of ownership," Kitts told the luncheon. "Land is only one item in the total picture."

Kitts pointed out that the assessor's job has become one of the most complex administrative tasks in county government. He spoke on progress made during his 10 years in the office in bringing appraisals to a mandatory state ratio before a 1970 deadline.

The clerk in charge will be expected to provide money orders, acceptance, delivery and dispatch of ordinary, registered, insured and COD mail, the sale of all necessary postal supplies; and to provide heat, lights and all equipment, including a safe approved by the post office department. Foresters Meeting In Lake Conference

Nelson Stone of the Tahoe National Forest is representing the Truckee district at the conclave being held through Friday at the University of California Alumni Association Center at Tahoe City, attended by fire control personnel of Central California and western Nevada.

The local, state and federal groups are concentrating on holding down fire losses by prevention.

Monday's hail and rainstorm, coupled with nearby thunder and lightning brought .81 in precipitation to the area, lessening the danger of fire by lightning strikes in the Tahoe National Forest, Truckee district. Electricity was temporarily out in sections of town.

Henry Toccalini said that this does not lessen the danger of fire as precipitation for May 1 was 5.67 below normal, when normal for the month of May is 1.46.

Snow was reported in the Susanville district.

Killed in the mishap was Mrs. Unetta Dolldorf, 73, who was thrown from the car door, but hung by a seat belt as the car careened down the pavement. The driver, Marcus Dolldorf, 77, was taken to the Tahoe Forest Hospital with minor injuries.

Sanitary District For Disposal Plan

In its regular monthly meeting held May 3, the Truckee Sanitary District voted unanimously to endorse the North Tahoe Regional Plan for solving the sewage problems of North and West shore of Lake Tahoe, and the Donner-Truckee area.

The program requires in excess of $16 million, in order to complete the main trunk lines from the California-Nevada state line to Tahoe City, from Bliss State Park to Tahoe City, and through a main transmission line of 36 inch in size down the Truckee river up into Martis area.

Tahoe Questions On Planners' Slate

Several matters pertaining to the eastern end of the county will be before the Placer County planning commission when it convenes tomorrow morning, May 13, at Auburn.

Leading off the agenda is a continuing discussion of the Tahoe Regional Plan. Next will be consideration of adjustments in the Miramar Woods condominium, a mile south of Truckee River near the Lake Tahoe shoreline.

A tentative map for Serene Lake Unit 1, in the Soda Springs area, will be considered at 11:30 a.m. At 2:30 p.m. a rezoning request by Brooks Walker relative to part of Miramar Heights tract will be presented and at 3:30 a tentative map of North Tahoe Lodge, a condominium development in the Kings Beach area, will be before the commission.

Several other items of general concern and others affecting property in the western sections of Placer County are also on the schedule.

UCD's moundsman John Dodd gave up only three hits in losing 5-0. Moore helped his own cause in collecting a triple in the third, driving in three runs.

Conservation Camp Will Be Open Early

The state department of corrections conservation camp at Hobart Mill will be opening, almost a month ahead of schedule, on May 23. This was revealed at the conservation center near Susanville this week.

The fire control and prevention camp was originally set for opening June 15. However, lack of precipitation and early warming weather this year has increased the potential fire danger near here. Hence, the 33 inmates and staff will begin moving in May 20 and the camp will be activated for the season May 23.

Lake Level—

The level of Lake Tahoe was 6227.94 on Wednesday, with 70 cf per second leaving the gates. High temperature for the week was 68 degrees May 7, low was 31, May 11.

Another Hurdle Cleared on Road To Incorporation

Paving the way for continued efforts to have the Truckee-Donner Community incorporated into a city, the Nevada County Local Agency Formation Commission Monday gave unanimous approval to a petition presented to determine the feasibility of incorporation.

There was only minor opposition to the petition, the majority of those attending apparently favoring the idea. The meeting, held in the Veterans Memorial Building at 10 a. m. was attended by more than 50 interested local property owners and business people.

Proponents of the incorporation plan will now continue efforts to obtain a sufficient number of signatures on a petition asking the board of supervisors to call an election to determine the issue.

Commission members at the meeting were Chairman John Sorenson, Lou Hartman, supervisor of the 3rd district; Donald Blake, supervisor from the 4th district; Ricard Hale, councilman from Grasss Valley; Robert Paine, councilman from Nevada City. Also in attendance in an advisory capacity were County Counsel Leo Todd and County Clerk Theodore Kohler.

Incidentally, it was just 25 years ago last month that an election to incorporate Truckee was defeated by a narrow margin. The current campaign is the first since that time to give this area the status of a city.

A lengthy survey by an outside consultant two years ago gave evidence that the community would be vastly benefited through incorporation even without an increase in taxes. Currently, the area is governed by several boards operating as many districts, each with taxing ability and without the unity which would be provided through incorporation and none in a position to obtain the many tax refunds, subsidies and grants from the state and federal governments.

Safety Award Goes To Truckee Utility

Truckee Public Utility District was honored in Boston, Mass., Tuesday for an outstanding safety record in 1965. The local utility was a winner in the American Public Power Association's annual safety contest.

The honor placed the district in the top 10 per cent of publicly owned systems from a standpoint of safety. Manager Francis Longo pointed out that, in addition to the recognition, their safety record also resulted in a $650 dividend from the state compensation insurance fund.

Award certificates were presented to the safety contest winners during the 23rd annual conference in Boston of APPA, a national association of local publicly owned electric utilities.

In our opinion a conscientious and capable program has been followed to apply the requirements as contained in the State Controllers Publication, "Accounting Standards and Policies for Counties", as they pertain to Nevada County. In the areas of Tax Accounting, Fixed Assets Accounting, Budgetary Accounting and Hospital Accounting, we regard your records as superior."

SIERRA COLLEGE PROGRAM EXPANDS TO MEET NEEDS

ROCKLIN— The years of 1965 and 1966 are the "years of expansion" of physical facilities at Sierra College, with enrollment capacity at the college getting a big boost from more than $2 million in constructioin.

Just five years ago, district voters saw the completion of the $3.5 million area junior college plant, with a dozen buildings designed to house 1,000 students. But that first year, 1961, enrollment jumped to 1,050 and has risen since to 1,700 day and 1,000 night students.

A tax override passed last year made possible the following expansions:

A $346,000 math-drafting building which will house a number of classrooms and labs, constructed by Nimbus Construction company.

An industrial technology classroom building to be completed by mid-spring for the large agriculture, forestry, electronics and auto programs.

Science Addition

A $1.1 million science addition to double the laboratory and classroom space of the present building, perhaps the most crowded on campus. Included will be a large lecture hall, display center and one of the west's most modern planetariums. The building will be completed next fall.

A $484,000 federally - financed campus center, cafeteria and bookstore expansion to meet the needs of a student body of 2500 students, slated fir fall completion.

The rest of 1966-67 will see little new construction, Business Manager George Alman said, since the district's construction funds will be exhausted. Storage and equipment buildings are contemplated next year. Locker room space must be added to handle increased enrollment in required physical education classes.

However, Marion Akers, vice president and dean of instruction, is working with architect John Hansen in planning future campus buildings. Next major building will be a 400 seat Little Theater, which will provide a much needed large lecture room and drama facility, probably in 1968-69.

Space utilization for 3500 students on campus is also underway by the planners. When daytime enrollment reaches 2500, additional campuses may become part of the district master plan, according to Akers. Currently, plans are being made to survey population and census figures as part of the planning effort for location of two new campuses.

Looking farther ahead, plans call for a swimming pool and additional classroom and instructional buildings by 1969-70.

Expanding Staff

Akers pointed out, however, that physical buildings are only a part of the picture, and that growth means not only expansion of facilities, but development of new instructional staffs.

Sierra, he noted, has doubled its teaching staff in the past 10 years, at the same time tripling its enrollment. Recruitment of new English, forestry, agriculture, social science, science, physical education, language and business instructors has strengthened Sierra's programs, both academic and vocational.

Sierra's vocational programs, which added a new vocational nursing class only this semester, will expand next year with the addition of library technician and engineering technician programs.

Graphic arts, language, psychology and anthropology course additions are expected in 1966.

Increased life science offerings, in regular and summer sessions, have already been initiated.

Night School

"Controlled growth" is perhaps the best term to describe the evening school college course program expansion at Sierra. Currently, some 39 courses are being offered with more than 1,000 students, mostly adult but with large numbers of day students, enrolled. The evening program is entirely new since development of the Rocklin campus, with 10 to 12 courses offered each semester at Nevada Union high school in Nevada County's west end.

Director Frank Van Vliet points out that enrollment in evening classes could be doubled, if the staff to teach the classes were available. Obviously, costs would also go up. Instead, the program is increased as demand warrants each year, with the result that the drop-out rate at Sierra is below the state average.

"It takes a lot of of stick-to-itness to take night courses," he noted.

Besides the normal academic transfer courses offered, Sierra's law enforcement and business programs, along with real estate programs, have been extremely popular. All are designed to allow students to finish all the course offerings each two or three years, all at night. Enrollments have been in the hundreds in these vocational programs. Russ Journigan, vocational director, indicated new programs, like the library technician program, would be offered first exclusively as night programs.

Summer Session

Sierra's summer session, which had less than 200 enrolled three years ago, will exceed 400 this summer, Akers predicted. The trend to year-around operation of the school plant will be reflected at Sierra.

Akers also pointed out that improvement, as well as expansion is a key word with Sierrans. All instructors continually update their courses, and many courses are altered to fit into modern developments, particularly as they are reflected at the University of California or state colleges to which Sierra graduates transfer.

Some special Sierra programs, such as agriculture and forestry, are notable in that they are well regarded by the four year institutions. Other terminal programs, such as vocational nursing, have enviable records of success in employment and passing by graduates of state exams.

Permanent curriculum committees and citizens advisory committees in vocational areas also are working to improve Sierra programs.

Akers concluded his review by noting two major elements left undiscussed: the community and the local school systems.

"Both President Weaver and I have noted that the students we get as graduates from local high schools are better and better prepared. It is really the local high schools and the jobs they are doing which make the improvement of Sierra so easy and so certain. Forty or fifty per cent of the high school graduates in our area come to Sierra. We plan to help them academically and vocationally."

Akers said community acceptance of the college and the need for college education for today's world was a major factor in making public college education for the youth of the area possible.

Licensed drivers of motor vehicles in America number some 95.6 million.

HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENTS

Highway improvements completed or underway in the United States since 1956 have cost $42 billion.

Truckee's First Census in 1870 Heavily Chinese

(By DOUG BARRETT)

Frequent, destructive fires in the earlier days of Truckee have wiped out many standard channels of tracing the historic background of the town and its surrounding area. Newspaper files earlier than 1927, for instance, do not exist.

Outlines on the western migration, the Donner Party and the building of the railroad give highlights but offer little on the day-to-day life in the early years. Occasionally an historian such as Tahoe's E. B. Scott offfers greater breadth, as he discusses Truckee in its relationship to Lake Tahoe.

The microfilm library and the California section, both at the State Library, in Sacramento offer rich sources of contemporary history. For instance, the census enumerations are on file there and offer much of interest for the time invested in the research.

The first federal census after the establishment of Truckee was in 1807. Then—and until quite recently—Truckee was part of Meadow Lake Township, Nevada County. However, already by that year Meadow Lake had ceased to exist as a post office; the township embracing, beside the Truckee post office, Boca and part of Cisco.

Making allowance for tally error, Truckee then listed just short of 1500 people while Boca showed 137. Of the total in Truckee, about 385 to 400 were natives of China. There was also noted an extremely heavy predominance of men.

After the Chinese, the Irish rated heavily among foreign born—and both of these groups were listed mainly as laborers and wood cutters.

Still in the international vein, it is interesting to note a concern with "re-uniting" Germany and Hitler's "one Reich." Less than 100 years ago not a single person here listed his place of birth as "Germany" although several listed such places as Prussia, Baden, Hesse Damstaat, Hanover, Schleswig- Holstein, Bavaria, etc., all of which have more recently been states of Germany.

D. E. Sykes, a 62-year-old New Yorker, shows as the lone editor on the township lists. J. C. Plunkett, 36, from New York, was justice of the peace. Four lawyers constituted the local bar—E. H. Gaylord, 39, New York; D. B. Taylor, 28, Canada; A. M. Walker, 45, Kentucky; A. A. Dalby, 35, New York. There was one dentist—whose name I failed to copy—and four physicians, L. Lasoyne, 50, a native of France; Jaw Ah, Sing Wo and Sun Ah, all Chinese.

Four American born women—three New Yorkers and one from Chile—gave their occupation as "prostitute" while 31 Chinese-born women similarly listed themselves. Four men born in the occident and six Orientals listed their profession as "gambler."

The most unusual occupational listing must be conceded to Hen Ye, 59, born in China, who gave his as "opium house." It did not clarify whether as an operator or as a customer.

The Central Pacific Railroad and the mills employed most of the men by far, with saloon keepers outnumbering all other businessmen. There were stage drivers and B. Malcarne, 36, an Italian, showed up as a lithographer.

Bill Stead Killed In Florida Crash

Long time Lake Tahoe residents and racing fans were shocked to learn of the death of Bill Stead, Reno businessman and sports figure, in a Florida plane crash on April 28.

Stead began his boat racing career 20 years ago in one of the small boats class in the Lake Tahoe regatta. Winning consistently, he entered the national circuit when he bought an unlimited hydroplane and continued domination of the Tahoe race events.

At least three times—1949, 1950 and 1957—he suffered serious injuries from accidents in speed boats. In 1958 he came back to win in the Apple Cup, Diamond Cup, Silver Cup and Mapes Cup events.

Early in 1959 his boat, the Maverick, exploded on Lake Mead but Stead left the hospital in a few days. Again that September, his craft overturned at 130 mph in a race. The same year saw him top his water racing career by winning the Gold Cup, the national hydroplane championship and a place in the National Hydroplane hall of fame. At that point, he retired from active competition to devote his time to his Nevada business interests. Despite this, he had remained an active promoter of aquatic racing at Lake Tahoe.

His more active sporting talents went skyward. He revived the dormant National Championship Air Races and moved them from Cleveland to Reno. They had lapsed in 1950 but Stead promoted them again in 1964. This year they will be in their third season there. While he competed in several events, he did not finished higher than "place" in his brief career as an aerial speedster.

Last week, Bill Stead died in an airplane. The 85 horsepower midget he was flying in an exposition in St. Petersburg, Florida, was making a normal landing gapproach when it hit the runway, nosed over and was wrecked.

Trailer Haulers On Trout Trips Tipped by CHP

Now that trout season is upon us, it is time to think about the trailer you will use on that weekend of fishing, according to California Highway Patrol Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden.

"The condition and handling of the trailer you use for a fishing or camping trip," says Crittenden, "is just as important as the condition and handling of the fishing and camping equipment itself.

"Our California vehicle code has set certain equipment and driving standards for trailers towed by automobiles," the commissioner continues. "Among these standards is one providing for a maximum speed limit of 50 miles per hour for an auto-trailer combination. Another provides that cars towing trailers be equipped with two rear-view mirrors—one on each side of the car—when the trailer or its load obscures the driver's view oo the rear.

The code also provides standards for brakes, lights, and signals, and for additional driving regulations.

"Violations of the vehicle code as it pertains to auto-trailer combinations, are subject to traffic citations when observed by traffic officers of the California Highway Patrol," says Crittenden.

All these points and others are covered in a leaflet entitled "Trailering in California," which is available upon request at the nearest office of the California Highway Patrol.

Favorable weather is no safeguard against highway accidents. The overwhelming percentage of all accidents in 1965 occurred during clear and dry weather.

Kuchel Seeking Young Men For Academies Bids

WASHINGTON — Applications for nominations next year to the four United States service academies have been invited from qualified California young men by U. S. Senator Thomas H. Kuchel.

High school students who will graduate by July 1, 1967, and college undergraduates, both within age limits of 17 to 22 as of the date of entrance, were offered by the senator a chance to attend the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, U. S. Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, or U. S. Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, New York, in the classes of 1971.

The California lawmaker will make his nominations on the strength of scores in scholastic examinations given by the U. S. Civil Service Commission and to be held at numerous places in California next July 11. Kuchel has two places to fill at West Point, three at Annapolis and one at Colorado Springs and will designate ten aspirants for further screening by the Merchant Marine Academy.

Kuchel said that California youths interested in competing for a chance to attend one of the service institutions should advise him promptly and fixed his office deadline on receiving applications at June 6.

Second Bay Crossing Endorsed by Authority

SAN FRANCISCO — Some time about 1974, if all goes well, motorists entering and leaving San Francisco to and from the East Bay will have a new eight-lane bridge available for their use.

The State Toll Bridge Authority has approved the so-called India Basin-Alameda route for a new bridge. It lies just a few miles south of the existing San Francisco Oakland bridge.

The bridge still has to win legislative approval and funds to finance its $300 million cost from existing bridge tolls rank after a prior committment to finance an underwater tube for the Bay Area Rapid Transit District.

Shots of Antique Equipment Sought For County Fair

NEVADA CITY— Once again, Jack M. Meade, director of the department of public works, asks residents of Nevada County for assistance by looking into their attics, old trunks, barns and cellars for old photographs of tractors, "Fresnos", working crews, etc., from the "old days". The loan of these photographs will be used as a part of the county department of public works' exhibit at the Nevada County Fair next August 25 through 28.

These old photographs will be displayed along with old and new equipment to show the progress that has been made since the early part of this century. Slides and films relating to road and bridge construction will also be shown. The exhibit and films will show where local tax dollars are used.

Mail or bring photographs to the Department of Public Works, Courthouse, Nevada City, California. You will be given a receipt for the loan of your photographs and given public recognition for your contribution to the exhibit. Photographs will be returned at the close of the fair.

The sky suddenly turned black and a heavy rain squall turned the calm lake into an angry sea for a couple of hours, then all was serene again.

We want to welcome the Clarence Osburns to Donner Lake. They recently took over McReynolds Sporting Good store on the east end.

Clarence is a real fisherman and has taken his share of the big mackinaw here over the years.

The shop has all kinds of equipment for the outdoorsman.

Mrs. Pat Lawrence, daughter Lee and sons Randy and David have been enjoying their stay at Donner Lake, first the skiing and fishing and various water sports too. The boys are real "river rats" and shot the rapids on the Truckee River east of town a few days ago.

Pat's husband, Renn, is a colonel in the U. S. Army and recently left for duty in Viet Nam. He and his family are excellent skiers, and learned their technique on the slopes of European ski areas.

Lee is looking forward to horseback riding, another hobby of hers.

George Wurst plans to have his horses back near the park this weekend for the summer season.

Don't forget the Donner Area Jaycees Swap and Shop Saturday in Truckee. Here's a chance to let someone else use those unused items we all seem to keep around the house and garage.

The Ponderosa Golf Course is open again, so get out those clubs and try your swing out on the nine hole course. Alex and Hazel Stewart will be glad to see you golfers.

Carolyn Eakin, summer cabin owner of Reed Road, Donner Lake, just returned from a four-weeks trip to Italy, ,Greece and Turkey, and is again ready to enjoy the beauty of the Donner Lake area.

Cites Pest Poison As Hazard to Pets

Mrs. K. G. Eakin, seasonal resident near Donner Lake, writes the Sierra Sun of her concern over the scattering of poison in nearby wooded areas.

"In February, we took our little poodle to our summer cabin for a weekend. It seems rather hard to believe that someone would plant strychnine where not only small mountain animals would get it but also the loved pets of regular residents," Mrs. Eakin said.

She suggested this be looked into by responsible authority and more adequate controls be instituted.

"We are soon to be in Donner again and I am afraid our dog may, again, almost lose his life," she concluded.

Reveal Betrothal Of Miss Heidi Euer

The bethothal announcement and early summer wedding plans of Heidi Euer and William Norbury were received from Winnemucca, Nevada, where the bride to be is presently attending high school. She is the daughter of Mrs. Vida Brooke of Winnemucca and Burnal Euer of Truckee.

Norbury is the son of Mrs. Richard Hussy of Portola and attended school in Winnemucca. He is presently stationed in North Carolina with the U. S. Marine Corps.

Youth Ministry To Hold Fireside Chat

The high school youth ministry of the United Church of Christ of Squaw Valley will meet for a fireside conversation in the home of the Evans family on Lanny Lane in Squaw Valley at 7 p. m. Call 583-4187.

Those of junior high age in the Tahoe City area will meet at the home of Rick Holley Wednesday, May 18, at 4 p. m. for discussion with Frank Evans, minister of the church.

Thursday, May 19, the parish families from Tahoe City area will have a house "church meeting" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barclay, at 7:30 p. m. Call 583-4187.

Vision Clinic Set By Co-Op Nursery

On Tuesday, May 17, and Thursday, May 19, from 9:30 a. m. to 11:30 a. m. the Truckee Parent Cooperative Nursery School will conduct a pre-school vision screening program for children ages three and four at the Church of the Mountains in Truckee.

The prime purpose of this program is the detection of amblyopia. Amblyopia is an eye disorder that is often called "lazy eye". Because amblyopia must be detected during the early years of childhood to be treated successfully, it is of particular interest to parents of preschoolers. If this condition is not found before the age of six or seven, it is usually too late for successful medical treatment. Eye specialists estimate that about 100,000 children are passing beyond the help of medical treatment each year.

Vision screening programs such as the ones being scheduled by the nursery school group have been held throughout the country by similar organizations with gratifying response. To prevent overcrowding of the facilities, the nursery school testing group would prefer to have children from the Truckee and Gateway areas come on Tuesday and from Meadow Park, Donner Trail and Donner Lake on Thursday. The program will be supervised by Mrs. Celia Brinkley, school nurse for the Tahoe Truckee district.
